Five Truths About the Holy Spirit - lignonier.org

Christ performed his miracles through the power of the Holy Spirit, not immediately by his own divine power. In other words, the divine nature acted not immediately by virtue of "the hypostatic union" (the joining of two natures in Christ's singular person) but mediately by means of the Holy Spirit. The conventional way of understanding Christ's miracles has typically been to argue that Christ performs miracles by virtue of his own divine nature.
